Date: 01 August 2009

Topic: Youth and the Arts; Youth Involvement in Community Theatre

Participants: Cody Ross Romero (local high school student in the play "Over The Edge, Part 2"), Katie Linder (also in the play), Fiona Whitten (local student in "Over The Edge, Part 2"), Jordan Veit (also in the play), Aaron Williams (local student, technician for the play), Jalila Arthur (local high school student supporting a group called Art is the Cure), Julie Pittman (UWC-USA Alum '08, Brown University student), Daniel McDonald (getting a local youth band pulled together)

Co-Hosts: Pat Leahan, Curtis Sollohub

Summary: We hear from a wide variety of local youth about the importance of getting involved with community theatre, art, music, and other forms of creative expression. We interview the young actors and techies (Cody, Katie, Fiona, Jordan, and Aaron) who are participating in the local comedy, "Over The Edge, Part 2," which is showing this weekend. We talk with Jalila and Daniel about finding an outlet for self-expression, whether it be painting, playing music, or helping others.
