

Youth Radio - "Fighting Nonviolently" Summit

{enclose PTR-100116-Conference.mp3}

Community Peace Radio Show #62

Date: 16 January 2010

Topic: "Fighting Nonviolently" Summit

Participants: Makani Nakasone (Robertson High School), Tessa Nasca (UWC), Mounia Abousaid (UWC), Cat Steven Leger (Rio Gallinas School), Shania Gallegos (Rio Gallinas School), John McLeod (Rio Gallinas School)

Co-Hosts: Pat Leahan, Dennis Lopez (behind the scenes), Arielle Hawney (via phone)

Summary: We discuss the upcoming "Choose Your Weapon: Fighting Nonviolently" Summit. It is being co-sponsored by the Rio Gallinas School, United World College-USA, and the Las Vegas Peace and Justice Center. The conference is being held at the UWC, is free and open to the public. The community is encouraged to attend. There are 35+ workshops, entertainment, films, hands-on activities, special guest MinniJean Brown Trickey of the Little Rock Nine, and much more. There will be a Las Gorras Blancas art gallery exhibit, and other activities for middle school and high school youth and adults. What a great way to celebrate Dr. Martin Luther King Day. Please join us Sunday, January 17th at 7:00 PM, and Monday, January 18th from 9:00-4:00 PM at the United World College.

Resources:

To register for the Summit: <http://www.uwc-usa.org/> or 505-454-4228

<http://www.aeinstein.org/>

<http://nonviolentweapons.com/>

<http://www.zinnedproject.org/>

Las Gorras Blancas information:

<http://www.newmexicohistory.org/filedetails.php?fileID=23134>

Pat's Extra Notes:

We play the PSAs for the "Fighting Nonviolently" Summit.

Casa de Cultura "Healthcare as a Human Right" mural dedication, El Centro Family Health, today at 2PM

Rally in Santa Fe against White Peak Land Swap, Tue., Jan. 19th, 11:00 AM

Our thoughts are with the people of Haiti who just experienced a devastating 7.0 earthquake.

Candlelight Vigil for Justice, Tue. Jan. 19th, 5:30-6PM, outside 1st Presbyterian Church, 1000 Douglas Ave.

Makani and Pat ad lib the Semilla and LV BodyWorks commercials

Happy Birthday Shaun and Ryan!

Thank you, David, for our CPR intro music:

<http://www.DavidRovics.com/>